HELLO, READER!

It's so nice to see you again, especially after all the excitement of Genie and Teeny's last adventure! Do you remember, they had a funny old time in a theme park helping Grant get back home to WISHALUZIA?

There was a magic wishing well, silly sausages and a ride on the tallest roller coaster in the world!

After a successful mission, Tilly and Teeny went back home to Earth, and Grant returned safely to his family in the land of genies.

We join them now after a good night's sleep, at the breakfast table, where Grant's dad is making piles of delicious starberry pancakes . . .

CHAPTER 1 A MAGICAL BREAKFAST

‘Extra sparkle syrup on mine, please, Dad!’ Grant requested excitedly. ‘It’s so nice to be back. I do love Earth, but the breakfasts were a little, erm, boring – they have things like flakes made from corns and cross ants!’

‘Urgh, gross!’ Grant’s sister Greta shouted, pulling a face. ‘Earth sounds like a total nightmare.’

She gave her dad a big hug, then she and Grant did their special greeting – sticking their tongues out at each other, waggling their hands, touching elbows then flying round each other in a circle.

They all scoffed the huge pile of starberry pancakes and their dad did a burp.

Greta followed with a HUGE

burp, then Grant let rip a

GINORMOUS

burp that shook their entire lamp-shaped home. Then they all got the giggles, which is funny because Grant's family name is Giggle.

Grant Giggle, Greta Giggle and Gregory Giggle, known collectively as the Giggles.

After half an hour, they all stopped giggling and Grant went to open the front door to go and explore WISHALUZIA, but his dad and Greta both shouted, 'GRANT, NO! STOP!'

Grant froze and Greta rushed to slam the door shut.

Grant's dad suddenly looked very serious . . .
