MR NORTON'S NEW HAT

HUW LEWIS JONES

COREY EGBERT

LITTLE TIGER
LONDON

One Monday morning,
Horace Norton found . . .

. . . that a mouse
had made a house
in his hat.

Now, this was something of a surprise.

An illustration of a man with a grey beard and a brown hat with a mouse on top, riding a red bicycle through a forest. He is wearing a blue jacket and has a brown bag slung over his shoulder. The bicycle has a basket on the front. The forest has several trees with some yellow and orange autumn leaves. In the background, there is a small village with white houses and a church with a blue tower on a green hill.

But Mr Norton was a kind man,
and he didn't want to disturb it.
So, he went to work all the same . . .

. . . with a mouse
with a house
in his hat.
